Mr. F. A. Resch
Executive Newsphoto Editor
The Associated Press
Rockefeller Plaza
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Resch:

Our mutual friend, John R. Cauley, Washington Bureau Chief of the Kansas City Star, told me you were kind enough to give him two glossy prints of Allen Dulles that we were anxious to add to Mr. Dulles' personal files. They show him smoking a corncob pipe.

John also tells me that the pictures are on you and for that too our thanks.

Again, our appreciation for your cooperation with our good friend, John Cauley.

Sincerely,

Stanley J. Grogan

June 18, 1960.

Dear Colonel Grogan:

I am enclosing two prints of a picture of Mr. Dulles with the pipe which you requested.

When you called earlier in the week I telephoned the Wirephoto department of the Associated Press here and they informed me that the negatives of the picture had been sent to New York.

So I wrote to Al Resch, a friend of mine who is executive newsphoto editor of the A.P. in New York, asking for the pictures and I received them today.

I am happy I was able to get them for you. I am also enclosing a tearsheet of the story I wrote about Mr. Dulles' appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations committee, and the inserted picture.

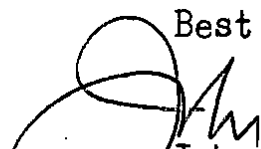

Al Resch says these pictures are on him, so if you want to send him a thank you note, the name and address are:

Mr. F.A. Resch,
Executive Newsphoto Editor,
The Associated Press,
Rockefeller Plaza,
New York, N.Y.

Roy is going to pass up the Democratic convention in Los Angeles, the first one he has missed in years, but will ~~not~~ go to Chicago for the Republican convention.

I trust you are feeling well.

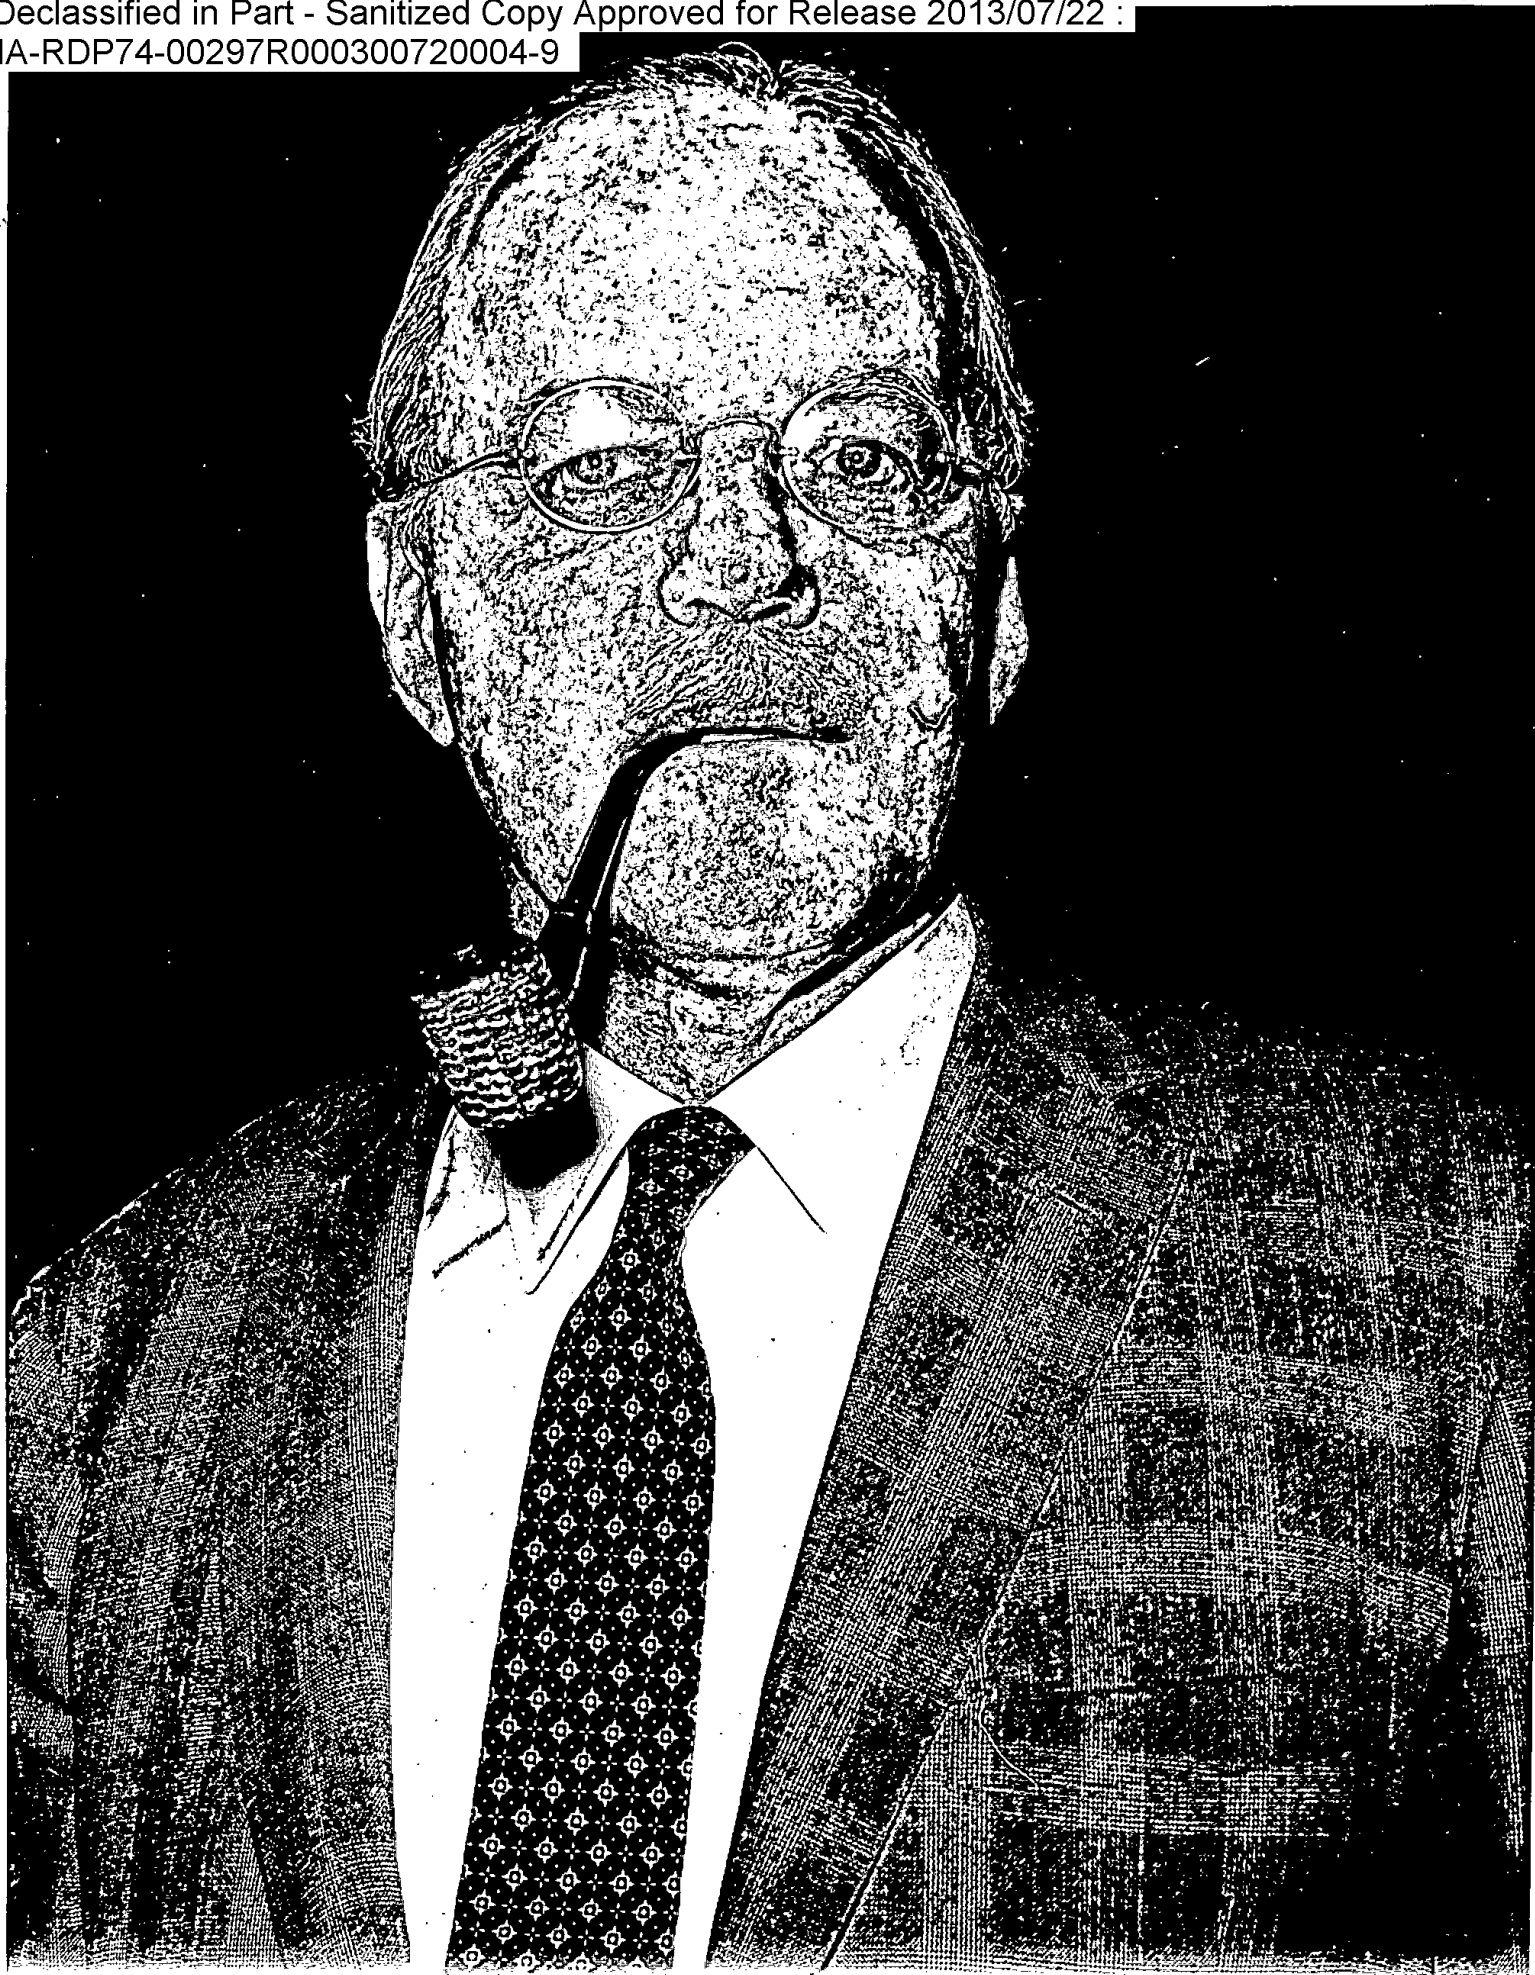

Best personal regards,

John R. Coulter

Honorable Allen Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The high regard in which we have always held you and the work of your agency was stepped up by your photo in the Kansas City Star with one of our pipes.

The latter being one of our lesser varieties, I hasten to forward you a set of our best.

Sincerely,
